

THE TREE I CAN SEE FROM MY WINDOW

BY:
LOURDES JIMÉNEZ VALIENTE

PHOTOS OF THE TREE:

JULY

AUGUST

SEPTEMBER

THE TREE STORY:

This pine is very important for me and my family.

It is in my village, in my grandparents house, where my mother and aunts grew up.

My grandparents planted it when they built our home.

I have always played there when I was little.

I love going there and see it, it makes me feel calmed and sheltered.

INFORMATION:

PINE TREE (PINUS)

HEIGHT: 20 FT

SPREAD: 6 FT

GROWTH RATE: SLOW

FRUIT: PINION OR PINE NUTS

COMMENTS:

IT'S A CONIFEROUS RESINOUS TREE, VERY LONG-LIVED AND ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT TREES IN COMMERCE.

VALUE TO WILDLIFE: HIGH

ATTRACTS: BIRDS, INSECTS

SHAPE: ROUND

LEAVES: NEEDLE-LIKE AND PERENNIAL

BARK: THIN AND FLAKY